Dear Mr Smith,

Thank you for the invitation to a splendid evening of music on Saturday. From the opening work by Wagner to the finale by Khachaturian the young musicians from all countries played excellently.

The future of music across Europe is in very safe hands and the exchange of young musicians does more for peaceful co-operation than any diplomatic treaty. If there is any way that you can convey mine and my wife's appreciation to them please do as we were very impressed with their talent.

We look forward to hearing them again in the near future and wish them all the best for the coming tour.

Yours sincerely
